Experience

Sung-Hyui specialises in charity, social enterprise, social finance and impact investing.

She advises on the full range of activities carried out by charities, social enterprises and socially-focused lenders, including formation and registration, governance, debt and equity capital-raising and general charity and commercial law issues.

Sung-Hyui has a particular interest in structuring and executing impact-focused finance transactions in a wide range of forms, including impact investing, social investment and general secured and unsecured lending, for clients ranging from international charities, NGOs and social enterprises, to impact investors, social finance intermediaries, global corporates, financial institutions and socially-focused lenders.

Sung-Hyui joined Bates Wells Braithwaite having trained and worked for eight years in the general banking team of a magic circle law firm, where she advised on an extensive range of high value, multi-jurisdictional leveraged finance (lender and sponsor-side), investment grade, emerging markets, insurance and real estate financing transactions.
